A Search for Grandmother Ellis

This project came about as a result of my desire to find out for certain the name of my Grandmother on my Mother's side. This being the Ellis side of my family.

My Mother had told me that her Daddy came from Wright County, Missouri, so we started looking there first. The information which follows comes from many sources. Census records, courthouse records, old newspapers, family documents and Bible records are some of the sources used. A number of libraries were used for researching, including, Oklahoma Historical Society Library in Oklahoma City, Dallas Public Library, Fort Worth Public Library, National Archives Branch in Fort Worth, LDS Branch Library in Oklahoma City, LDS Library in Salt Lake City and Springfield Public Library, Springfield, MO. Records were checked in courthouses in Wright County, MO and Cooke County, TX. We also visited and corresponded with the Ellis families still in Wright County, Missouri, others working on Ellis lines and many of my Ellis Cousins and their families.

We have made several trips to Missouri looking for information on the family. Coe Ellis, who is a grand daughter of Buck and Mary Ann Ellis still lives in Mountain Grove, MO. Coe has the Ellis family Bible and graciously shared the information recorded. We found the home place where Great Grandfather, Benjamin "Buck" Ellis raised his family. He was the Father of William Preston Ellis, my Grandfather. Ross Ellis, a great grand son of Buck's owns and farms Buck's old home place in Wright County, MO. It is a beautiful place. We climbed a long steep hill on a very, very cold day, to visit the family cemetery which is located on top of the hill overlooking the farm land on the home place.

We have included pictures of the tombstones of both Buck and Rachel Ketchersides, the Mother of William Preston Ellis.

This family history is about the descendants of Benjamin "Buck" Ellis and Rachel Ketchersides. Their four children were: Mary Ann, Benjamin Franklin, William Preston and Asa. All were born in Wright County Missouri. The four of them apparently came to Oklahoma Indian Territory, some by way of Texas. After Rachel died, Buck married Mary Ann Boatman. They were the parents of nine children. They were: Elizabeth Dunsmore, Robert, Dora Kelley, Demarias Griffith, Ruth Long, Agnes Woods, Isabell Grimes, Andrew Patrick and Jasper Clayton. A number of the descendants of these children reside in the Mountain Grove, Wright County, Missouri area today.

Mary Ann's children were born in Wright Co., MO. She later came to Oklahoma Indian Territory and settled in the Hartshorne area. Asa raised his family in the same area and eventually went to New Mexico in the Roswell area, where he was living at the time of his death. I do not know what became of Benjamin.

We knew that William Preston Ellis came to Oklahoma Indian Territory from Texas and settled near Mill Creek probably about 1889-1890. My grandfather Gregory had also come to Mill Creek from Texas about the same time. Betty started looking for both families in Texas. We first found William Preston on the 1870 Red River County tax rolls and then in Cooke County Texas. On a trip to Texas in 1981, Betty found a probate record in the court house in Gainesville, Cooke County, Texas that proves beyond any doubt that my maternal grandmother was Elizabeth L. Boatman, daughter of Richard Boatman and Mary Caroline Garrett.

(We believe that Elizabeth is a niece of Mary Ann Boatman, Buck's second wife. If this is correct, William Preston married his step-mother's niece.) We have included a copy of these probate records. These records list the children and their ages. The children of William Preston and Elizabeth were all born in the Burns City, Texas area. This is south east of Gainesville, Texas. Copies of deeds which are quite interesting are also included. The legal records which are a part of this family history are copied exactly as the words are spelled in the official courthouse records. The Official documents were photo copied at the court house and typed for easier reading. A copy of the Marriage License for W.P. Ellis and Elizabeth Boatman is also included. It was located in the Cooke County Texas courthouse. Some of the older grand children have some recollections of W.P., or Pressley as he was known, and the children's step-mother, Nan Rhodes.

I want to Thank Betty for the time and effort spent in working on this family history. There have been many hours of researching, compiling, storing and putting the information in useable form. We did not put all this material together just for me. We also put it together for my Ellis Cousins and anyone else who would like a copy.

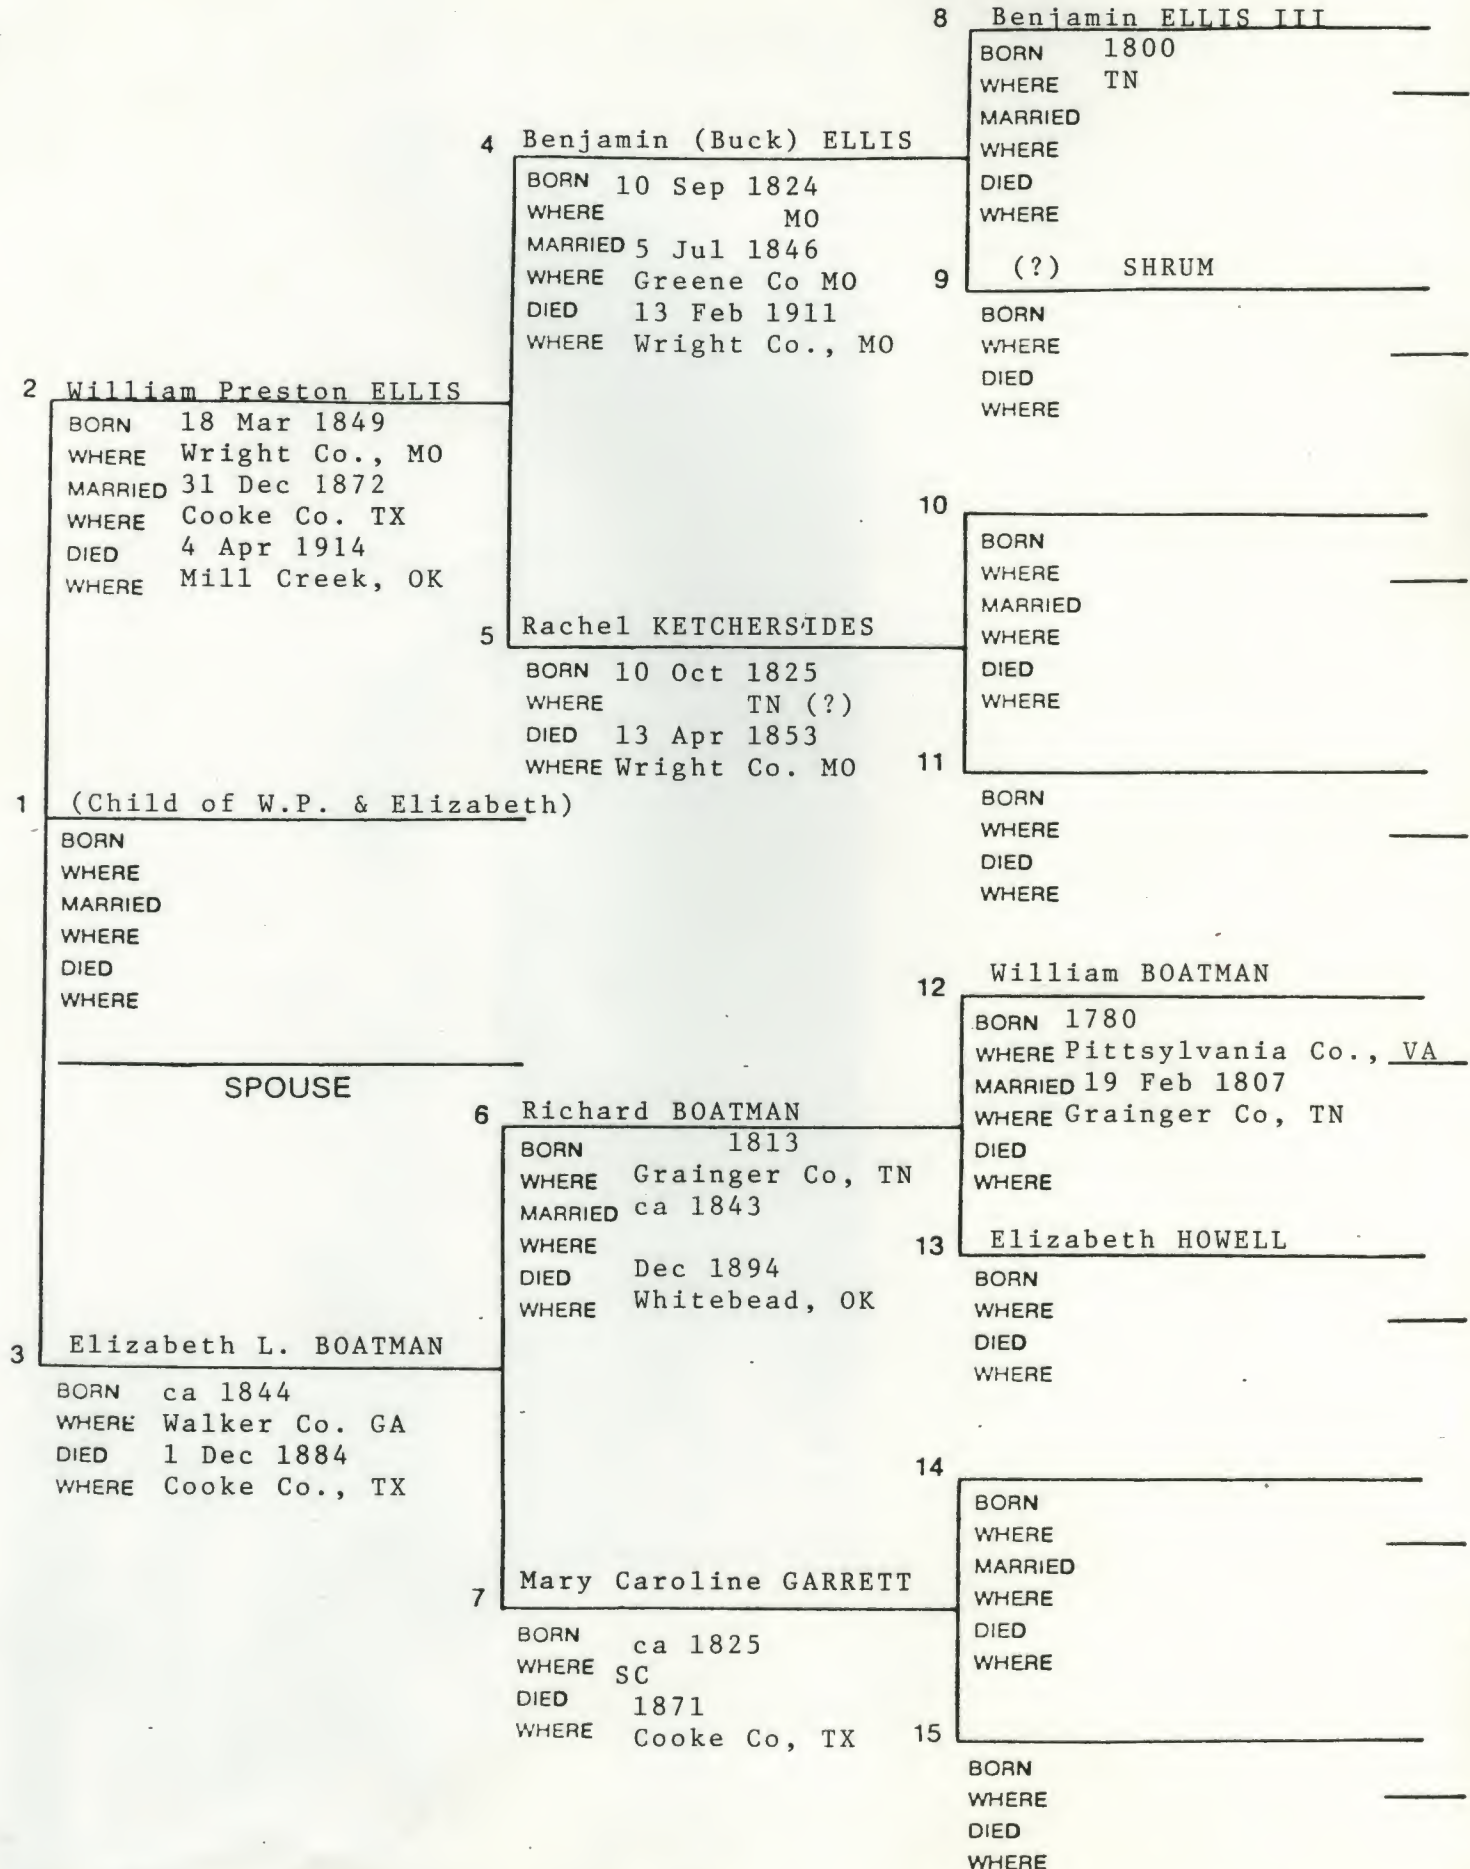

To my Ellis Cousins, I hope you enjoy and appreciate this family history as much as Betty and I do. We want to thank all who contributed information, pictures and moral support. We also hope as new members become a part of these families or when older members leave, that you will notify us so we can keep the information updated. Thank you.

Your Cousin

Edward Gregory

SECTION ONE

WHAT IF?

If you could see your ancestors,
All standing in a row,
Would you be proud of them,
Or don't you really know?
Some strange discoveries are made in climbing family trees,
And some of them, you know,
Do not particularly please.
If you could see your ancestors,
All standing in a row,
There might be some of them, perhaps,
You wouldn't care to know.
But there's another question
Which requires a point of view,
If you could meet your ancestors,
Would they be proud of you?

Column 2:

An Early Settler Passes Over The River of Death

Benjamin Ellis better known as "Uncle Buck" died at his home near Plank, Monday night, of old age and general debility. The deceased was one of the early settlers of this part of the state, having come here from the north part of the state about 1840, with his parents. He was 88 years old and had lived for more than 40 years on the old home farm where he died. He had distinct recollections of the Indians in this country, when he came here as a boy and could relate many interesting incidents, and hardships that marked the early settlement of this country.

When pioneer families first settled in the rich valley of Beaver Creek in pre-Civil War days, the Ellis clan was among the first to arrive.

Today the original homesteads of the sons of Benjamin Ellis are still owned by the Ellis family, making this Centennial farm one of Wright County's very oldest, possibly 150 years in the same family.

Seven generations of Ellis' have owned and worked these farms about two miles north of Dawson. Today they are still farming the land, differently than their grandfather, but in the same spirit.

The great-grandfather, Benjamin Ellis, and his children first moved to Texas County, to a place still called Ellis Prairie, after these early settlers, in the days long before the Civil War. The family then moved to the Beaver Creek valley sometime before 1855. The original land papers were lost when the old Wright County courthouse was burned--still, the earliest record of Ellis' on Wright County land dates back to 1855.

Benjamin "Buck" Ellis is the grandfather of Earl Ellis, and one of the first settlers on Beaver Creek. He is pictured here in his old age, after he was blind.

Benjamin and his sons, Benjamin "Buck", and Riley "Doc" homesteaded adjoining farms, and Buck married Mary Boatman, daughter of another pioneer family that lived on yet another Beaver Creek farm.

Buck and Mary raised a family of nine children. Betty Dunsmore, born in 1854, was the first. The others were Robert, Dora Kelley, Demarias Griffith, Ruth Long, Agnes Woods, Isabell Grimes, Andrew and Clate.

Buck built a log cabin first on one side of the creek, later on the other side. A skirmish in the Civil War, when it came, was fought on the farm. Buck and his children gathered up the balls that littered the fields and placed them in a hollow tree, but the tree's later growth hid the memento of the war. Being a male civilian was just about as dangerous as soldiering. Buck had to combat bush-ackers who stole his stock and burned his buildings.

Buck died in 1910. His son, Clate, took over the farm.

Buck's brother was called Doc because he was the one and only doctor in Wright County, or so it is said now.

His great-nephew, Earl, recalls that history records Doc riding an old gray horse day and night, attending to the area's sick. He died after a tiring fishing expedition.

Clate Ellis was fated to marry also a daughter of Wright County pioneers, Sarah Worsham.

He was a stockman on his father's farm. The family grew to include Earl, Ina Freels, Ruth Zircoski and Gladys Hutsell.

Earl later took over the farm from his father, and began a long period during which he joined together most of these pioneer holdings into one 1010 acre ranch on the Beaver. Over the years Earl purchased in bits and pieces the old Doc Ellis farm, the Benjamin Ellis farm, the Boatman farm and others in the area. Earl's wife, Bess, is herself the great-granddaughter of Johnny Hutsell, who built the first water powered mill on Beaver Creek.

Today this large holding has grown to 1400 acres, and is farmed by Earl's three sons, Jimmy, Roy and Ross. All three live on the land, and their children are the seventh generation of Ellis'.

The farms are treasure houses of history. They contain three cemeteries and two old schools. The children of Buck, Doc and Andrew first attended Ellis School, on the old Doc Ellis farm, and later Buck's children, to avoid crossing the creek in flood, started to Hopkins School.

One of the cemeteries was founded for the Boatman clan, the others are for the Ellis' and the other area families.

In the rich Beaver Creek bottom, the Ellis family raised grain crops successfully for many years.

Earl recalls that he "never bought a sack of dairy feed," in many years of farming. Earl, like his father and grandfather, was a stockman and farmer. He got his first pig from his uncle Andrew when he was eight, and became a "full-fledged" farmer at 16.

He was seldom without hogs, cattle or mules. He divided the land between his sons about twenty years ago, the old Doc Ellis place to Ross, the other farms to Roy and Jimmy. Ellis remained on the land until about a year ago, when he and his wife retired to a home in Mountain Grove. Unable to give up his ranching ways entirely, though, he still owns an 80 acre farm on Highway 95 in the Dawson area, where he runs "a few cattle."

This fourth generation Ellis gained a reputation among his friends and neighbors as an outstanding farmer. His sons are carrying on the tradition.

Two of his sons are dairymen, the third is a beef cow man. The Ellis family is obviously one clan whose belief in the land and willingness to husband its resources has found reward. Besides providing livings for a number of Ellis families, it's now a magnificent estate, rich in history for all the future Ellis' to enjoy.

Death of Presley Ellis

Mr. Presley Ellis died at his home near the Bellwood school house last Saturday night, April 4, at 10 o'clock after a short illness, aged about sixty years. Deceased was a native of Missouri, but came to this country about twenty years ago. He lives a widow and several children. Deceased was an uncle of Floyd Ellis and Mrs. F. F. Davis of this place. Funeral services were held at the family residence Sunday afternoon and the burial took place in the Flood Creek cemetery.

Mr. Ellis' death was not only a shock, but surprise to his family and friends, as he was in Mill Creek Saturday afternoon and seemed to be enjoying his usual health. On his way home that evening he said to his company that he felt a queer sensation about the throat. From that time he grew worse and Dr. Combest was called, but before he could render aid and get relief the patient died from choking. Some time ago he suffered from an abscess and it is believed the abscess broke within, causing the choking and death. Deceased was much respected by all the people and his family and near relatives have the sympathy of all.

She was Mrs. Hazel Gregory who had lived at Bromide since a young woman. Mrs. Gregory suffered burns over 65 percent of her body when her clothing caught fire from trash she was burning. Comforted and aided by a neighbor who heard her screams, Mrs. Viola Chapman, until an ambulance arrived from Tishomingo, Mrs. Gregory was brought to the hospital here by the Johnston County Ambulance Service and then transferred to the Burn Center at Baptist Hospital in Oklahoma City.

Born March 9, 1903 in Texas, the Bromide woman was married to Joseph T. Gregory on Nov. 14, 1919. He preceded her in death in 1972. A son, Miles of Safford, Tex., a daughter, Mrs. Effie Owensby of Roosevelt, Ariz., nine grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren; a brother, Lee Tullos of Waurika, and a sister, Ruby Tullos of California, survive.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Monday in the Bromide Baptist Church with Rev. Wesley Mitchell conducting the service. Burial was at Condon Grove with grandsons as pallbearers.

Richard Smith Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Apache Woman Dies In Crash, Driver Rescued

APACHE (Staff) — A 59-year-old Apache woman was killed Wednesday night when the car in which she was riding was involved in a two-car collision three and one-half miles south and three miles west of Apache in Comanche County.

Ruby J. Wilkerson, 59, Box 61, Apache, was dead at the scene of a broken neck. Funeral arrangements are pending at Crews Funeral Home in Apache.

Another woman, Joyce E. Chesney, 43, Apache, the driver of the car in which Mrs. Wilkerson was riding, was knocked unconscious and was pulled from the burning car by the three occupants of the other vehicle. Highway Patrolman Ron Alexander said. The car was destroyed by the fire.

The Chesney car and a car driven by Bobby J. Komardley, 20, Rt. 1, Apache, collided at the intersection, Alexander said. Komardley was treated for minor head and arm injuries at the PHS Indian Hospital in Lawton.

One passenger in the Komardley car, Robert M. Knox, 19, Anadarko, received minor head injuries and was treated at Indian Hospital. The other passenger in the car was not injured.

Mrs. Chesney was reported in good condition at Comanche County Memorial Hospital where she was being treated for head injuries and a broken collar bone, officials said.

Alexander said both Mrs. Chesney and Mrs. Wilkerson were pulled from the burning car before they received any injuries from the fire.

The Komardley car was northbound on a county road and Ms. Chesney was westbound on a county road, Alexander said.

Lola GREGORY - age 15

AT THE TIME of the crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and other forest trees. So firm and strong was the tree that it was selected as the timber for the cross.

To be used for such a purpose, caused the tree great distress and grief. Jesus observed this and in His gentle pity for all sorrow and suffering, made the tree this promise,

"Never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross with the print of the nails in each petal. In the center of the flower will be the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified. Therefore this tree shall not be destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of my death upon the cross."

The TwentyThird Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES;
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE
PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE
HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER*

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Richard Preston Ellis, known to everyone as Bud, was born February 2, 1878 to William Preston and Elizabeth Boatman Ellis in Grayson County, Texas. Bud was the youngest of eight children. He was nine years old when his mother died. His father then married a widow woman with two children.

In 1894 William sold his farm in Texas and moved the family to the Indian Territory by covered wagon, settling near what is now called Alhambra.

Bud's older brother, Robert, owned and operated a general store and was also the postmaster. His brother, Bill, carried the mail from Mill Creek to Alhambra. Later Bud took over the job as mail carrier.

He had several sisters and brothers and their home was the gathering place for the young people of the community. The story goes that at one time Bud's father owned an old cap and ball pistol. One Sunday night Mr. Ellis had gone out to see about his stock. The boys had all been daring each other to fire the pistol. Just as the father entered the door the old gun went off. The scene that followed was like a runaway with the father and all the young people running. It would be hard to tell who was the most scared.

In 1900 Bud met Lillie Pitman and on August 13, 1901, they were married at Lillie's home in Alhambra. They resided in the Alhambra Community for several years. This was where Jasper, Chassie, Arie, Herbert and Mae were born. The family then moved to the Bellwood Community. The family farmed and raised livestock. This was where Floyd, Nathan and Preston were born. The family then moved to Connerville and again farmed and raised livestock. The children attended school at New Hope, south of town, until the school consolidated with Connerville.

Bud and Lillie Ellis had four more children, Mary, James, Florence and Ellen. Soon all the older children began to marry and move away from home. Jasper, (now deceased) was the first to marry. He married Lula Gordon and they were the parents of eight children. Chassie, (now deceased) married Fred LaRock and had nine children. Mae married Roy Murdock and they had four children. Herbert (now deceased) married Lorine Chambers and they had three children. Arie married Lige Wisdom and they have two daughters, Mevlyn and Imogene.

later moved to Bromide and then to Sulphur in 1947. They lived at Sulphur until their deaths. Lillie passed away September 1962 and Bud died on January 5, 1964, leaving eleven children and fifty-three grandchildren. Bud and Lillie were the parents of fifteen children and they raised twelve to become adults.

The grandchildren were always happy to visit their grandparents and listen to their stories of life in the Indian Territory.

Imogene Wisdom married Don Edwards and they have one son, Barry. The Edwards reside in Chinile, Arizona. Mevlyn Wisdom married Willie Kirkpatrick, of Bromide, where they still reside. The Kirkpatricks have one son Willie David Jr. He married Julie Anderson and they have a little girl named Brandi Rachelle. They reside at Tishomingo.

Floyd Ellis married Bernice Thomas. They have one daughter. Mary married Lark Miller and they have seven children. James married Eula Lee McGee and they have three children. Nathan married Christine Allen and they have six children. Florence married Hollis Timmons and they have four children. Ellen married Robert Barger and they have one daughter. Preston married Thelma Thomas. They have three children.

After the children were married and gone away from home, Bud and Lillie moved to Pauls Valley in 1944. They

A Search for Grandmother Ellis

This project came about as a result of my desire to find out for certain the name of my Grandmother on my Mother's side. This being the Ellis side of my family.

My Mother had told me that her Daddy came from Wright County, Missouri, so we started looking there first. The information which follows comes from many sources. Census records, courthouse records, old newspapers, family documents and Bible records are some of the sources used. A number of libraries were used for researching, including, Oklahoma Historical Society Library in Oklahoma City, Dallas Public Library, Fort Worth Public Library, National Archives Branch in Fort Worth, LDS Branch Library in Oklahoma City, LDS Library in Salt Lake City and Springfield Public Library, Springfield, MO. Records were checked in courthouses in Wright County, MO and Cooke County, TX. We also visited and corresponded with the Ellis families still in Wright County, Missouri, others working on Ellis lines and many of my Ellis Cousins and their families.

We have made several trips to Missouri looking for information on the family. Coe Ellis, who is a grand daughter of Buck and Mary Ann Ellis still lives in Mountain Grove, MO. Coe has the Ellis family Bible and graciously shared the information recorded. We found the home place where Great Grandfather, Benjamin "Buck" Ellis raised his family. He was the Father of William Preston Ellis, my Grandfather. Ross Ellis, a great grand son of Buck's owns and farms Buck's old home place in Wright County, MO. It is a beautiful place. We climbed a long steep hill on a very, very cold day, to visit the family cemetery which is located on top of the hill overlooking the farm land on the home place.

WEWOKA WOMAN KILLED IN CRASH EAST OF STUART

Mrs. Lou (L.E.) Akin, 77 year old Wewoka resident died at a Holdenville hospital Tuesday night after being fatally injured in a pedestrian car accident Tuesday evening on highway 270, 5 miles east of Stuart.

Investigating Highway Patrol Trooper Bill Livingston of the McAlester Unit said Mrs. Akin who had been at a residence on the south side of the highway started to cross to the north side where her husband was waiting for her.

At the same time she walked into the path of a car driven by Charles O. Guard, Dallas, Texas who was traveling east on 270. Livingston said that while it was almost impossible to tell how fast the car had been going at the time of the accident, Mrs. Akin was found 20 feet from the probable point of impact.

The trooper said Mrs. Akin suffered internal injuries and was taken to a Holdenville hospital where she died a short time later. He said no charges have been filed against Guard.

Services for Mrs. Akin who had lived in the Wewoka-Holdenville area for 44 years will be held at 3 pm Thursday at the First Baptist Church here. Rev. Luther Cox will officiate. Burial will be in the Holdenville Cemetery under the direction of Hudson Funeral Home.

Bearers will be Freeman Jackson, Clyde Middleton, Arvie Bowerman, Chester Middleton, Lawson Fox and Walter Coppege.

Mrs. Akin was born in Whitewright, Texas in 1880.

Surviving are her husband O.D. Akin, of the home, one son T.P. Akin, McAlester, one daughter Mrs. F.D. Ripley, Holdenville, one sister, Mrs. Margaret Gregory, Bromide, one brother, Bud Ellis, Sulphur.

According to a United Press report, Mrs. Akin was the 303rd person to die on Oklahoma highways this year. The toll was 291 at the date in 1956.

Preston & Millie MIDDLETON AKIN

CHICKASAW NATION: IMPORTANT PLACES

CHOCTAW NATION; IMPORTANT PLACES

FROM
 "OKLAHOMA PLACE NAMES"
 By George H. Shirk

Each of the following towns and places play a part in the lives of the Ellis Descendants named in this family history.

ADA - County seat of Pontotoc County. Record Town for Recording District No. 16, Indian Territory. Post office established July 10, 1891. Named for Ada Reed, daughter of the first Postmaster, William J. Reed.

ALHAMBRA - In northwestern Johnston County, 4 miles north of Mill Creek. A post office from May 5, 1896 to May 31, 1904. No longer in existence. Its name comes from the fortress near Granada, Spain.

ALTUS - County seat of Jackson County. Post office established October 27, 1890. Name comes from the Latin word meaning "high". Original town, Frazier, was built along low ground, and when it was destroyed by high water, the residents moved the new location to higher land.

ANADARKO - County seat of Caddo County. Post office established April 22, 1873. Name is a corruption of the Caddo word "Na-da-ko", the name of one of the Caddoan tribes.

APACHE - In southern Caddo County. Post office established September 3, 1901. The word Apache is probably from "apachu", the Zuni word for "enemy".

ARBUCKLE MOUNTAINS - Mountain range in south-central Oklahoma caused by an igneous intrusion exposing pre-Cambrian formations. Named for Brigadier General Matthew Arbuckle.

ARPELAR - In Pittsburg County, 12 miles west of McAlester. A post office from February 25, 1903 to June 30, 1934. Named for Aaron Arpelar, county judge of Tobucksy County, Choctaw Nation.

ATOKA - County seat of Atoka County. Record Town for Recording District No. 23, Indian Territory. Post office established January 23, 1868. It was named for Captain Atoka, for whom the county was later named.

ATOKA COUNTY - A county in southeast-central Oklahoma. Created at statehood and, in general, comprises Indian Territory Recording District No. 23. Named for Captain Atoka, a Choctaw ballplayer. The name is from the Choctaw word "hitoka" or "hetoka", meaning "ball ground."

BIG CANYON - Formerly Arbuckle. In southeastern Murray County, 4 miles south of Dougherty. Post office name changed to Big Canyon, March 2, 1922, and discontinued May 31, 1961. Took its name from the large nearby canyon made by the Washita River.

BLUE - In Bryan County, 9 miles east of Durant. Post office established July 1, 1874. Took its name from the nearby Blue River.

BOGGY DEPOT - In Atoka County, 14 miles southwest of Atoka. Post office established November 5, 1849. On March 22, 1872, it was moved 1 1/2 miles south and name changed to New Boggy Depot, which in turn, on December 26, 1883, was changed to Boggy Depot. Post office discontinued July 31, 1944. Took its name from nearby Boggy Creek, a name derived from the French "vaseux", meaning "muddy" or "slimy."

BROMIDE - Formerly Zenobia. In northeastern Johnston County, 5 miles northwest of Wapanucka. Post office name changed to Bromide, June 8, 1907. Took its name from nearby mineral springs.

BRYAN COUNTY - County in southeastern Oklahoma. Created at statehood from an area approximating Recording District No. 25, Indian Territory. Named for William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska.

BURROW - In Coal County, 5 miles northwest of Clarita. A post office from September 26, 1908 to June 15, 1926. Post office was located in Pontotoc County until March 4, 1918. Names for Henry Burrow, early settler.

CADDO - In northern Bryan County. Post office established December 19, 1872. It took its name from the nearby Caddo Hills, where, according to tradition, an Indian battle was fought in 1808.

CADDO COUNTY - A county in west central Oklahoma. In area slightly reduced from the size of territorial county of the same name. The name is that of an Indian tribe and stems from "kaadi" meaning "chief."

CARTER COUNTY - A county of southern Oklahoma created at statehood. Named for a prominent early-day family of which Charles D. Carter was the best-known member.

CEMENT - In southeastern Caddo County. Post office established June 2, 1902. It took its name from nearby quarrying operations.

CHECOTAH - In north-central McIntosh County. Post office established June 17, 1886. Named for Samuel Checote, Creek chief.

CHICKASHA - Formerly Pensee. County seat of Grady County. Post office name changed to Chickasha, June 20, 1892. Record Town for Recording District No. 19, Indian Territory. Chickasha is the correct spelling of Chickasaw, but the popular pronunciation of the word is incorrect.

CLARITA - Formerly Kittie, in southwestern Coal County. Post office name changed to Clarita, January 19, 1910. Named for Clarita Kenefic, wife of William Kenefic, railroad official.

CLEVELAND COUNTY - A county in central Oklahoma, constituted from Cleveland County, Oklahoma Territory. Named for Grover Cleveland.
